League president doesn't bother to show up for position round!

ASSORTED TRIVIA THAT SCOOT DEEMED IMPORTANT TO RELAY

- ▶ We rolled a combined 206 games with a score of 200 or higher, the 5th most of any season in league history.
- ▶ In terms of overall league average, this was our 4th highest season with 160.9295.
- ▶ Monica Hufford made her debut as the 5th best female bowler in league history.
- ▶ Aaron Barber moved up to the #10 spot for best bowlers of all time. Only 4 of those ranked above him have bowled in recent seasons.
- ▶ In game 1 of week 14, Bob Brunker's 204 was his 100th 200+ game.
- ▶ Game 1 of week 7 was Dennis Laube's 1,500th recorded game of bowling in our league, the first to reach this milestone.
- ▶ In week 11, Aubrey Moren's 672 series was his 50th career 600+ series. He is the 5th bowler to reach this milestone.
- ▶ Always having to one-up Aubrey, in week 13 the 699 series rolled by Kody Karnes was his 100th career 600+ series. He is the 3rd person to reach this number.
- ▶ The mutual 725s rolled by Splitbowl Countries and HoF Sandwich in Week 14, game 1 is the highest scoring game ever among teams of four that resulted in a tie.
- ▶ Everybody liked to complain about mechanical problems with lanes 7&8, but overall bowlers performed better on those lanes than any other pair we rolled on this season (including the week they shifted us down) other than lanes 3&4. Not surprisingly, our worst pair of lanes was the set abutting the other league.
- ▶ In all 37 seasons now in the record books, there have been only 10 instances of a bowler rolling a single game whose score ended up being at least half of their series total. Oddly, two of those instances happened this season:
 - ▶ In week 9, Brian Byfield (avg 136 that week) rolled a 226 in his first game that went on to become 50.67% of his 446 series.
 - ▶ Two weeks later, Pat Hamell (avg 122 that week) topped that by rolling a 202 in game 3 that accounted for 52.88% of his 382 series.
 - ▶ Of course the overall record holder for this will likely never be topped. It was in week 2 of Fall 2005, when Lauren Schuster (avg 106) followed up a 73 and a 65 with a 214, which accounted for 60.8% of her 352 series.
- ▶ WITNESS!!!'s 25-7 first-half win record is tied for 5th highest ever.
- ▶ Matthew Taylor is the 3rd best bowler in league history without a championship, followed by Dennis Walling in 4th and Russell Bingham in 6th. Those three are the only recently-active bowlers with averages above 180 who haven't won a title yet.
- ▶ Nick Kinney's week 3 was the 9th highest power ranked performance in league history. He is also the 4th biggest sandbagger in league history, "miraculously improving" his average by 31 pins.
- ▶ In game 3 on week 7, JoAnne Gordon (avg 115 at the time) rolled a 191. Aaron Barber (avg 204 at the time) rolled a 178. This was the 8th biggest whooping of a top bowler by an underdog in league history.

P&P PILLAR AWARD

Demond Robinson

Even though he has not been seen in our league since the Fall 2005 session, Demond "Big D" Robinson dominated many of our Top 25 lists all the way up through 2014. While his legacy has begun fading in recent years, as of this writing he still holds onto 2nd place among best second-half win records, 8th place among bowlers to reach 100 wins in the fewest number of games, 14th among best bowlers by win percentage, and 21st for holding the weekly high game scratch.

As both a teammate and a competitor, Robinson was second to none when it came to encouraging those around him. His inviting personality in-between rolls was always a welcome distraction despite the intensity going on during close matchups. Focus, however, was the name of the game when it came time for him to step up on the lanes. In the Fall 2004 season, the league voted him as the Carl Goetz Defensive Bowler of the Season and People's Choice for Most Valuable Bowler. They were right, as the math proved he was the Actual Most Valuable Bowler that same season.

Demond's dedication reached its peak on the final day of his career with our league: December 20, 2005. It was championship week, and while his team (Same Belt, New Notch) was in the lead, it did not have the trophy locked up. Despite recovering from surgery, Demond rolled a 206 in his final game in our league to help secure the title and make himself, Seth, and Scoot the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th bowlers to win three consecutive titles.

SCOOT TRANSGRESSION #16

Rigged the alley scoring machines to try and cheat for a win in the position round.

DAVE WINGER 'GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN' AWARD

Teresa Deterding

Teresa rolled with us for seven seasons, from Fall 2010 through Fall 2014. (She skipped over the year 2013.) During that time she earned 6 MVBs, rolled a high game of 200, and a high series of 517. She won "Underdog of the Season" twice and was runner-up once, was a three-time runner-up for the Emily Podhajsky Good Sportsmanship Award, and was a runner-up for the Actual Season MVB three times. The one dark spot in her career was during her final year in our league, when she welcomed first Michael Gordon and then 11 weeks later Aaron Barber onto her team as fledgling new rookies.

SCOOT TRANSGRESSION #19

Scoot loses our entire scoresheet. And says, "Short version? This shit is apparently all rigged against you guys."

SCOOT AWARDS HIMSELF THE

SCOTT MURDOCK "GET
'ER DONE" AWARD

FALL 2018 BOWLING

- ▶ Begins on August 21, 2018.
- ▶ Same weekly time.
- ▶ Same bowling alley.
- ▶ Same cheating League Commissioner.
- ▶ You can keep same teams or form new teams if you want them.
- ▶ If you haven't already, please inform Scoot or AJ if you are in, out, or undecided by Friday (June 15). After Friday we will open enrollment up to everybody.

SCOOT TRANSGRESSION #21

Scoot "agrees with Kanye."

SCOOT'S MANY TRANSGRESSIONS

1. Said our team was "worse than Pops and Phil."
2. Doesn't have the new bowlers on the playing cards.
3. Says pre-bowling by yourself is fine and cheating is okay.
4. Doesn't ask for a witness when he "puts a dollar into the poker ante."
5. Won't ban Bob Brunner from the league.
6. Won't make "Sit Down, Be Humbowl" change their name to "HUMBOWL."
7. He never humps back (he knows he wants to).
8. Pops has 2 separate playing cards.
9. Phil has 2 separate playing cards.
10. Told Bob, "don't even get me started on [WITNESS!!!]. If they keep their antics up my hair will be whiter than yours by season end."
11. "That's not possible." Who knows what this is in regards to.
12. Wouldn't call the Sheriff back to address his outstanding warrant for arrest.
13. John Boren has 2 separate playing cards.
14. Bob Brunner pre-bowled in Week 6, but NO-ONE knows the scores. Literally. No one.
15. When Scoot was ill during Week 7, he neglected to think about how people will play cards and didn't make arrangements for the cards to be delivered.
 - And still hasn't reimbursed Aaron for the replacement cards.
16. Scott, the league president doesn't bother to show up for position round!
17. Rigged the alley scoring machines to try and cheat for a win in the position round.
18. Wouldn't deny on FaceTime that the oil patterns were rigged during position round.
19. Won't admit Vigliaturo has paid for the season in full.
20. Scoot somehow loses our entire scoresheet for one week and says, "Short version... This shit is apparently all rigged against you guys."
21. The website is not secure for iPhones to access.
22. Scoot "agrees with Kanye." And probably voted for Trump.
23. Allowed Dennis Walling to bowl a 300 against his team.
24. Accused us of trying to cheat the system and THEN asks us to do his chores at the bowling alley.
25. Allowed the bowling league to try and prevent WITNESS!!! from winning the league by changing lanes at the last minute.
26. Admitted "because of last week's double lane re-shuffling, most of you did not get to see the sign-up sheets we set out for the Fall season."
27. From Scoot, "I won't be able to get you any stats until the season ends for real next week, but go ahead and starting thinking about your presentation. Also, I went ahead and added the champion banner to your team page."
28. Claims WITNESS!!! won without any help from Seth.
29. Sent Seth the wrong league results data for the bowling presentation. Twice.
